American Idiot

This new musical, borne along by Green Day's electrifying score featuring music from their album American Idiot, follows the exhilarating journey of a new generation of young Americans, lead by friends Johnny, Tunny, and Will, as they struggle to find meaning in a post-9/11 world. When the three disgruntled men flee the constraints of their hometown for the thrills of city life, their paths are quickly estranged when Tunney enters the armed forces, Michael is called back home to attend familial responsibilities, and Johnny's attention becomes divided by a seductive love interest and a hazardous new friendship. In addition to including every song from Green Day's Grammy-winning Best Rock Album, American Idiot, this high-octane show also features several songs from their follow-up release, 21st Century Breakdown. American Idiot won two Tony Awards for scenic and lighting design. Ticket price: $70.00

La Cage aux Folles

The winner of the 2010 Tony Award for Best Musical Revival, La Cage aux Folles centers on a St. Tropez drag-show nightclub owned by Georges and headlined by his longtime love Albin. The couple raised Georges' son (the product of a youthful one-night stand) together, but when young Jean-Michel gets engaged to the daughter of a right-wing politician determined to crack down on gay nightlife, Georges feels compelled to pretend to have a "normal" family, with Albin taking on the masculine persona of "Uncle Al." Will Jean-Michel's future in-laws be fooled? The heart of the show is its touching portrayal of Georges and Albin's enduring love. La Cage aux Folles also won Tony Awards for Best Actor and Best Director. Ticket price: $79.50
